

Ineligible Team Procedures

Prior to the start of the tournament, if a team roster is found to not meet the eligibility rules, the All-American Games Committee will act in the best interest of the spirit of the Games to determine a reasonable solution including but not limited to switching players from within the region teams, removal of players or disqualification of team from tournament.

After the start of the tournament, if a team roster is found to not meet the eligibility rules, the All-American Games Committee will act in the best interest of the spirit of the Games to determine a reasonable solution including but not limited to removal of players or disqualification of team from tournament.